Do you ever wonder if you have a problem with depression?

If the answer is yes, come to the office and fill out a simple questionnaire. After the form is completed, you will receive a free consultation to discuss treatment options.

(No appointment necessary for screening.)

A Special Kind of Care

I provide comprehensive evaluations and medication to patients 16 years and older. My affiliation with The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio as clinical assistant professor has proven to be a winning combination. A healthy, happy, productive patient is my greatest satisfaction.
